One of the most interesting events of next week; and one in which so-ciety will play a large part, will be the lawn party given at the Country Club of Virginia on Thursday, June 12th, from 6 to 8 P. M. The club-house will be beautifully decorated in cut flowers, and a collation will be served from a long table arranged in the main dining-room. Small tables, will be scattered about the lawn, and on the porches, and an analysis of the dencing orchestra will play for the dancing which will last until 11 o'clock. This occasion for one of the most brilliant gatherings of society, many smart gowns will be worn by the fashlonable set, the fete being the largest affaim of its kind given at Owing to the the club this season. Owing to the large membership of the club, invitations can only be issued to out-oftewn guests for members.

An interesting event of the afternoon will be the horse show, which will be given by the hunting members at 4:30 o'clock, immediately preceding the clubhouse reception. Davis—Camp.
